WORKSHOP ON SUSTAINABILITY

Come learn how to be a hero in your own family by saving money, conserving energy and protecting your family.

The Monmouth County Cool Cities Partnership extends an invitation to you to attend a Cool Cities workshop on Saturday, May 17, 2008.

Among the planned workshops are:

- Effects of global climate change on the towns of New Jersey by Professor Norbert Psuty, Ph. D., Rutgers University.
- Middletown's new "green initiatives" by Mayor Gerry Scharfenberger, Ph.D. who has attained Cool Cities status for Middletown Township
- What A Sustainable City Looks Like" Patrick Hossay, Ph.D., Richard Stockton College of NJ
- How to establish an emissions baseline for your home Faith Teitelbaum, Sierra Club Cool Cities
- How to establish an emissions baseline for your town Joe Keegel, Chemical Engineer
- What does a home energy audit entail? Leia Sims, Ecological Systems
- What does a municipal energy audit entail? Progressive Technologies, Inc

This is a time for action. The health of our communities depends upon your leadership. Please join us.
